1. APPROVAL OF MINUTES:

Approval of all previous meeting minutes bringing up to current date noting July 2017 meeting had been canceled.

2. DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION:

2A. Dr. Blackburn facilitated by asking series of questions, in connection to RCC purpose, as outlined and directing group to identify the items RCC finds important issues facing RCC and integration of recovery community into the City of Kerrville community. Twenty (20) items were posted on whiteboard of which all members identified, casting vote for two (2) items each. Top three (3) items receiving majority of marks would be top priority goals of focus moving forward.

2B. Items of focus are as follows:

- a. Establish and maintain contact with local news media to update events listing for increased visibility in volunteer opportunities for local recovery community
- b. Map of local Support agencies for quick identification and referral
- c. Transportation

2C. Councilmember actions

Contact persons listed, on file who expressed interest via application process in January 2017 that may have been disqualified due to addresses outside of city limits of Kerrville. The exemption would be made as to bring board to full fifteen (15) members.

3. ITEMS FOR FUTURE AGENDAS:

Establish three (3) sub-committees, existing of current RCC members to address priority goals listed for gathering information, creating resource and network contact list, updating RCC as a whole.

ADJOURNMENT.
