River Trail segment to be temporarily closed for maintenance March 22-24

Kerrville, Texas (March 19, 2021) – The Schreiner University segment of the Kerrville River Trail will be closed Monday thru Wednesday, March 22- 24, for maintenance and cleanup of debris lingering from the winter storm. This segment begins at the G Street trailhead and extends the majority of the way to the Schreiner University (SU) campus. The trailhead and portion of the trail on SU's campus is still closed to the public due to COVID. Please be mindful of signage and barricades. For safety, do not walk, run or bike past safety barriers. The segment is expected to re-open late Wednesday afternoon.

For more information, contact the Parks and Recreation Department at (830) 257-7300, recreation@kerrvilletx.gov, visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov, or follow us on Facebook at City of Kerrville TX – City Hall or Instagram at cityofkerrville.
