Extended by popular demand through March 2, Kerr Regional History Center hosts “Kerrville: Historic Houses of Worship”

Kerrville, Texas (Feb. 16, 2023) – The Kerr Regional History Center’s popular exhibit, “Kerrville: Historic Houses of Worship” will continue its run through March 2 at the center’s 425 Water Street address. The exhibit explores the beginnings of Kerrville’s faith traditions and the origins of our ecumenical community.

Faith and community are a critical part of the Texan tapestry. The history of faith communities has been characterized as the “single most important cultural and social force behind the Texas frontier.” The exhibit spans from the early circuit riders to the first permanent buildings, including First Methodist Church, St. Peter’s Episcopal Church, The Union Church that housed four protestant denominations (Baptist, Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian), Notre Dame Parish, and The Barnett Chapel Methodist.

The KRHC is open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information about viewing hours or to arrange a group visit, contact the library reference desk at (830) 258-1274.
