Schreiner University to host Uniquely Texan Spring Concert this Saturday

Kerrville, Texas (April 17, 2023) – The Schreiner University's Uniquely Texan Spring Concert will take place this Saturday, April 22, 2023, on the Floyd and Kathleen Cailloux Campus Activity Center lawn at Schreiner University. The day-long event will have music beginning at noon, with six bands scheduled to take the stage. Included in the program are Srinivas Koumounduri (SK), Shane Stumpf, Justin Gallegos, Los Lost Boyz, Chris Boss, Ragland, and this year's headliner is a songwriter and Texas music artist, Kolby Cooper. This event is free and open to the public.

This is an all-ages event that will take place, rain or shine. Lawn chairs and/or blankets are allowed. No coolers, weapons of any kind, outside alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs will be tolerated on campus property. Food vendors will be on-site. Beer concessions will be available for those over 21 (with ID). This Schreiner Centennial event will celebrate Schreiner University students – past, present, and future.

The University wants the community to join in this celebration.

“We want to celebrate the current Schreiner students, future Schreiner students and our incredible alumni with this event,” SU Marketing and Communications Toby Appleton said.

“At the same time, Schreiner is proud to show our appreciation and celebrate this incredible community that supports us in so many ways by offering this free concert for everyone to enjoy. Kerrville loves Schreiner students, and Schreiner loves this community.”

The annual Uniquely Texan Spring Concert will be one of the many events taking place on the University campus this weekend. The university’s alumni homecoming, known as RECALL, will take place Friday through Sunday, and there will be admitted student events happening throughout the day on Saturday, including a Schreiner softball team home game at 1 p.m. Schreiner University alumni can find more information on RECALL and register for events at www.schreiner.edu/alumni/recall/.

Former and future students will have a gathering tent on the CCAC lawn. The City of Kerrville will provide a Game Zone for all to enjoy. The timeline of some of the events is as follows:

- 12:00 p.m. – Srinivas Koumounduri (SK)
