Harris confirmed as Place 2 city council election winner in recount

Kerrville, Texas (May 19, 2023) – Jeff Harris’s election to the Place 2 city council position has been confirmed today following a recount of the May 6, 2023 election results. Harris initially garnered 1,815 votes in the Place 2 race, eight votes ahead of challenger Barbara Dewell-Ferguson’s 1,807 total. On May 12, Ferguson filed a petition requesting a recount, which was conducted today at the Kerr County Juvenile Probation Office. The recount, conducted by hand, finished with Harris totaling 1,812 votes and Ferguson 1,809.

Harris is scheduled to be sworn in to the Place 2 city council position at the Tuesday, May 23 city council meeting.

The City of Kerrville thanks the 19 volunteer members of the recount committee, including its chair, and the Kerr County election officials. The City also thanks Kerr County for providing the use of the Kerr County Juvenile Probation Offices.
