Last Chance Forever raptor show at the Callioux Theater Wednesday

Kerrville, Texas (June 19, 2023) – The Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library is thrilled to announce an extraordinary raptor show by Last Chance Forever, scheduled as part of its Summer Reading Program. The event will take place Wednesday, June 21 at 10 a.m. at the Callioux Theatre.

Founded in 1978 by master falconer and veterinary technician John Karger, Last Chance Forever's mission centers around the rehabilitation of sick, injured and orphaned birds of prey, while also educating the public about these remarkable creatures. Last Chance Forever's impressive educational program has garnered widespread recognition, reaching more than 500,000 individuals annually throughout the United States. By fostering a common-sense approach to the interaction between humanity and the environment, their program aims to promote a positive change in attitudes towards species such as hawks, owls, falcons, vultures and eagles. Attendees can anticipate an awe-inspiring show that will deepen their understanding and appreciation of these magnificent birds.

This program is free and open to the public. No registration is required. For more information, please contact the library reference desk at (830) 258-1274, or visit the library's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
