PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact:  Stuart Cunyus, Public Information Officer
(830) 258-1116
stuart.cunyus@kerrvilletx.gov

---

Library to host discussion on acclaimed documentary on Tuesday, Jan. 9

Kerrville,Texas (Jan. 4, 2024) – The Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library staff invites all interested individuals to join the Great Decisions group on Tuesday, Jan. 9 from 12 to 1:30 p.m. as they introduce an engaging new discussion topic. The group will explore the highly acclaimed documentary "Budrus," spotlighting the non-violent endeavors of a West Bank village in protecting their olive groves from the encroaching separation wall. Copies of the film are readily available for check-out at the library's circulation desk, and it is also accessible via online streaming.

Great Decisions stands as America's premier discussion platform on global affairs. Organized by the Foreign Policy Association, this program offers citizens an opportunity to delve into contemporary foreign policy matters through impartial and well-rounded programs and publications. This year's agenda includes essential topics such as Pandemic Preparedness, NATO's Future, Mideast Realignment, and Science Across Borders. The group will also view a selection of thought-provoking documentaries.

Participation in the discussion is open to all. To take part, individuals can check out the briefing book or film from the circulation desk for viewing or reading in the comfort of their homes. Then, on the first Tuesday of each month from 12 to 1:30 p.m., attendees can join the discussion hosted in the library's meeting room.

The program is free and registration is not required. For more information, please contact the library's reference desk at (830) 258-1274 or visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov

###