Kerrville-Schreiner Park Community Day: Free boat rentals, live music and more

Kerrville, Texas (May 28, 2024) – Kerrville-Schreiner Park’s Community Day debuts Saturday, June 8 in Kerrville. The event will include free nature programming, boat rentals (while supplies are available), food trucks, and live music on the river provided by the Owens Brothers. Entrance fees to Kerrville-Schreiner Park (KSP), 2385 Bandera Hwy., will be waived all day.

Event Schedule and Programming Details

- 8 – 9:30 a.m. – Bird Walk and Talk on the Riverfront
  - The Riverside Nature Center is bringing their monthly Bird Walk and Talk to KSP. Join Master Naturalist, David Drake, for a stroll in the shade along the river to identify and celebrate birds.

- 9 – 10:30 a.m. – Mountain Biking 101
  - Meet Lisa Nye-Salladin with Hill Country Bicycle Works at Trailhead 1 for an introduction to the basics of mountain biking, followed by a guided trail ride designed for beginners of all ages. Bring your bike, helmet, and water! Pre-requisites: Please arrive with a safe bicycle to ride with properly working brakes and air in the tires. Mountain bikes, gravel bikes, and dual-sport bikes are welcome.
- 10 – 11 a.m. – Plant Swap in the Pollinator Garden
  - Join Master Naturalists in the Pollinator Garden in KSP for a plant swap! Bring any plants you may be interested in trading with a friend, all while enjoying the pollinator garden.
- 11 a.m. – 3 p.m. – Free Boat Rentals
  - Kerrville Kayak and Canoe will provide free kayak, canoe, and paddleboard rentals on the KSP riverfront, while supplies are available. Food trucks will be onsite during this time, so stop by and grab lunch or a snack.
- 12 – 2 p.m. – Live Music on the River with the Owens Brothers
  - Austin-based bluegrass band, the Owens Brothers, will play live music for all to enjoy!
