History Center to host “Invisible Diamond” through Thursday

Kerrville, Texas (June 17, 2024) – The Kerr Regional History Center is pleased to announce a special exhibit entitled “The Invisible Diamond: 100 Years of Negro League Baseball” that goes on display for the community Tuesday, June 18 through Thursday, June 20.

This exhibit celebrates the legacy of incredible Texas players such as Andrew “Rube” Foster from Calvert, Texas, who established the Negro Baseball League. The exhibit also features other Texas baseball legends, including the Kerrville All Stars, whose roster includes some auspicious local names such as Fifer, Lewis, Shaw and others.

The Kerr Regional History Center is located on the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library campus at 425 Water St. The exhibit is free and open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For more information, please contact the library reference desk at (830) 258-1274.
