Experience Spring Break fun and free Events in Kerrville-Schreiner Park

Kerrville, Texas (Feb. 24, 2025) – Make this Spring Break unforgettable at Kerrville’s hidden gem – Kerrville-Schreiner Park. With 14 miles of scenic hiking and biking trails, river access, and three exciting, free events, it’s the perfect spot for outdoor fun and relaxation. Reserve your cabin, tent or RV site now before they fill up!

Spring Break Events

All events are free for both campers and non-campers. Plus, day-use fees will be waived one hour before each event begins.

- Movie in the Park & S’mores: On Monday, March 10, at 7 p.m., “Inside Out 2” (2024 - PG) will start at dark at the amphitheater. S’more supplies and popcorn will be available while supplies last. Don’t forget to bring blankets and lawn chairs for a cozy evening under the stars!

- Guided Hike with the Riverside Nature Center: On Tuesday, March 11 at 9 a.m., meet us at Trailhead 5 for a fun guided hike led by Kerrville Parks and Recreation Department and the Riverside Nature Center. The hike will be less than two miles.

- Concert by the River & Family Game Night: On Wednesday, March 12, our “Concerts by the River” series returns at 6 p.m. in the Amphitheater! Enjoy live music while family-friendly games are set up inside the Recreation Hall. It’s the perfect evening to relax, have fun and enjoy the beautiful river setting.
