STEAM Museum coming to the library Saturday

Kerrville, Texas (June 9, 2024) – Ignite curiosity and creativity at the STEAM Museum, a traveling exhibit from Mobile Ed Productions that brings science, technology, engineering, art, and math to life through hands-on learning and interactive displays.

The STEAM Museum will be at the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library on Saturday, June 14, with five (5) 45-minute sessions offered throughout the day:

- 10:30 a.m.
- 11:30 a.m.
- 1 p.m.
- 2 p.m.
- 3 p.m.

Each session provides an exciting opportunity for children and families to explore STEAM concepts in a fun, educational setting.

Registration is encouraged, as space is limited. Walk ups are welcome but cannot be guaranteed access.

Important Information

- Children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Everyone attending — children and adults — must be registered.
- Please arrive a few minutes early to allow for check-in and seating.
- Patrons are welcome to bring their own cushions for added comfort.

Please note that this program is designed for children and an accompanying adult. Please plan to attend and be actively engaged with your child. Drop-offs are not permitted.

This event is part of the library's Summer Reading Program, which supports all types of readers and helps children avoid the "summer slide" — the learning loss that can occur when school is out. From graphic novels to STEM activities like this one, the Summer Reading Program offers something for everyone. Participation is free and open to all. Library cards are free for Kerr County residents.

Let's explore STEAM — and keep young minds active all summer long!

Other future special events at the library include:

- The Color of Clay – Adults: Saturday, June 21 | 2–3:30 p.m. (registration required)
- Line Dancing with Clifton Fifer: Saturday, July 12 | 2–3:30 p.m.
- The Color of Clay – Kids: Saturday, July 18 | 2–3:30 p.m. (registration required)

Plus: Storytimes, LEGO Clubs, Game Room Parties, Teen Crafts, Book Clubs, and more—all summer long!
