Shelter Open Now for Hurricane Harvey Evacuees

Kerrville, Texas (August 25, 2017) – The City of Kerrville and Kerr County have opened a shelter for anyone who has self-evacuated from an area affected by Hurricane Harvey. The American Red Cross will provide a cot and blankets and the Salvation Army will provide two hot meals per day for those staying in the shelter. Registration is required for all self-evacuees. The shelter is located at Kerrville Bible Church, 898 Harper Rd N, Kerrville.

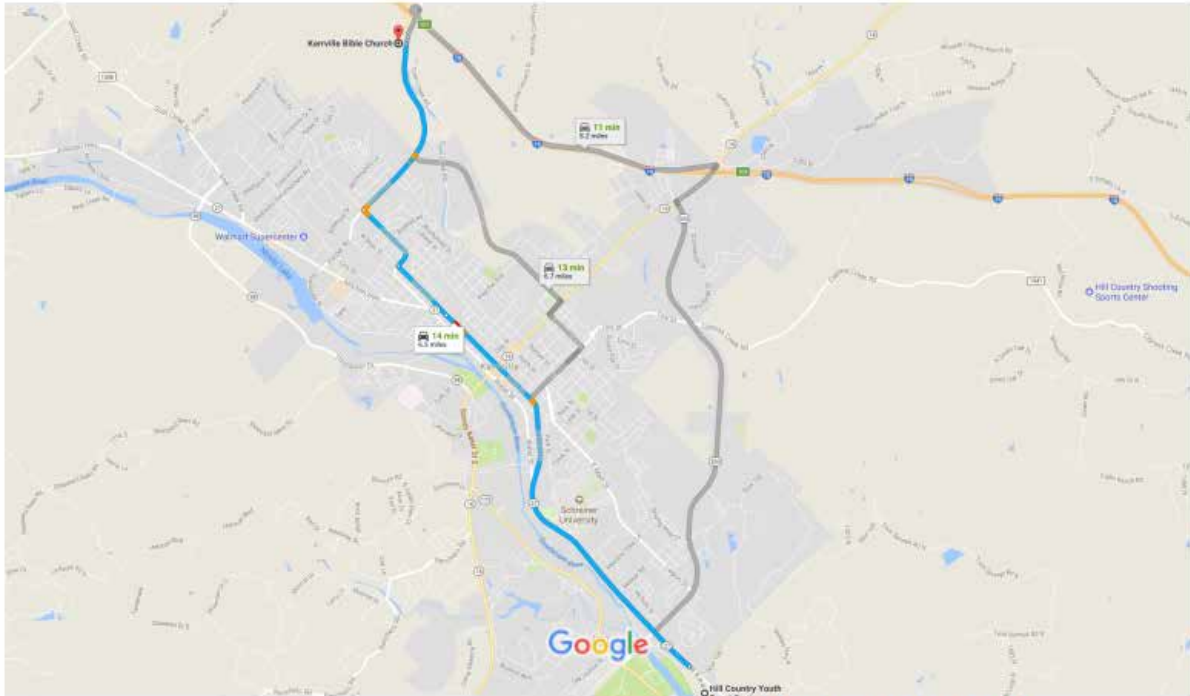

The Kerrville Convention and Visitors Bureau reports that all local hotels are at full occupancy at this time.

Self-evacuees with pets are requested to go to the Hill Country Youth Event Center, located at 3785 Highway 27 East in Kerrville to drop off their pets. A kennel or cage, leash, and water bowl should be brought with the pet.

This press release has been corrected to clarify that the Salvation Army will be providing the meals for those staying in the shelter.*
